12. Manuscripts, which do not conform to the above guidelines, will not be considered for publication.
13. The corresponding author will receive a camera ready version/galley proof of the accepted article after revision round and final edition by the Editorial Board for publication in the journal. It must be amended and returned by the corresponding author within two days of receipt. At the period of proofreading, new information and new author(s) should not be added to the manuscript unless the Editorial Board has given prior approval.

B. Review Process and Evaluation Criteria

There will be a blind review process for evaluating the manuscript by at least two anonymous reviewers. The editorial board will decide the merits of the submitted manuscript to be reviewed. The editor strives to provide decisions and constructive feedback to authors in time. Articles submitted for publication in the Journal of Scientific and Technological Research (JSTR) are evaluated according to the following criteria:

- Quality of theoretical arguments;
- Originality of research work;
- Significance of research conducted;
- Appropriateness of the research design;
- Quality of methodology and data analysis, and
- Clarity and coherence.

C. Peer Review Policy

Every article is first evaluated by the Editorial Board. If the article meets the scope of the journal, it will send to at least two blind reviewers. Based on the reviewers' comments, the article can be accepted, asked to revise or rejected. If two reviewers have widely
